Dear Mr. Burleigh,

I am sorry I have not written for quite some time, in fact I guess I actually haven't written to you at all. I am Mrs Margaret Lawrence. (née Lloyd) and I do wish to get the genealogy of my family in as complete detail as possible.

You stated that your fee would be ten dollars for any information you have from your day's file.

I too have considerable information which
I would be glad to send you.

3
able to state more clearly what I require.

Thanking you for your help I am

Sincerely

Margaret Laverack.

I don't know quite how to go about this as, it is the dollars that are scarce but I will enclose $10.00 for the information you have.

Apart from what I have which I will send you from my next letter I wish to have the birth date of every member marriage date + death date also names and information and as many dates of their children.

I realize that this would cost quite a sum and it would have to be paid monthly in bits as we have not the cash on hand.

I feel this letter is a bit of a jumble, but if you could send me what information you have, I will be

HAD HOUSE OF TORTURE SLEW ONTARIO AUTOIST BURIED BODY IN LIME

Shot Moaning Victim Twice,
Sold His Car, Netted
Profit of $325

PARENTS IN TORONTO

Detroit, April 8. — (UP) — Police found a rack for torture in the attic of "murder house" today and questioned two young men, who had confessed two murders of revolting brutality, about what other crimes they had scheduled for the future.

John R. Kasap, 22, a taxi driver, joined John Kurzawa, 21, in acknowledging responsibility for the murder of Philip Loyst, 24, and of Dorsey E. Bowman, 35. Loyst returned a profit of $325, Bowman, $385.

Philip Loyst

Loyst was a native of Deseronto, Ont., and before going to Detroit in 1925, lived in Toronto with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Loyst. His parents now live in Detroit.

Loyst's grave was prepared in the cellar of "murder house" even before he had been selected as a victim. Another grave was prepared beside his, but its prospective tenant felt a strange intuitive warning and evaded it.

"Murder house" was a drab two-story house rented and furnished by Kasap and Kurzawa with the proceeds of the Bowman murder. In the attic, police found rings and bolts placed in floor and rafters in such a way that they approximated the rack used in the middle ages to torture humans.

Kasap acknowledged rings and bolts had been installed for the purpose of torture, but denied they had ever been used. Today detectives were questioning him further, believing that he might have been guilty of other crimes, and, in view of the equipment of "murder house," had planned more.

Burn Oil-Soaked Body

Bowman, ill, needed money, advertised his automobile for sale. Kurzawa answered, took Bowman to the home of Kasap's parents, who were away, where Kasap was waiting with a pistol. Kasap confessed yesterday, as Kurzawa confessed last week, that Bowman was slain. His body was dumped into his own car, carried to a dump, saturated with kerosene, and set on fire. It was identified through dental work.

Meanwhile, Kasap and Kurzawa had forged Bowman's name to a bill of sale and sold his car for $385. With this money they rented and furnished "murder house" and while looking for new victims, dug two graves in the cellar and bought a quantity of quicklime.

Moan Brings Shot

Loyst's wife was going to have a baby and he needed money. He advertised his car for sale and Kurzawa answered. They went to "murder house", Kurzawa saying he wanted his wife to see it. Kasap was waiting inside with the pistol. Loyst was marched to the cellar and forced to strip to his underwear. He was then commanded to lie face down. He complained of the cold and was permitted to put on his overcoat. Then, Kasap said to police, he fired two shots into the spine of his prone victim. Loyst moaned, he said, so he fired a shot into the back of his head.

Loyst's hands were dipped in quicklime, his body was dumped into one of the graves and covered with quicklime, then the grave was filled.

Loyst's name was forged to a bill of sale and his car brought $325. The stayers spent it all on clothes and couldn't pay the next month's rent on "murder house" because Ralph Selden, an automobile salesman, had an intuition that Kasap was not a bonafide prospect and broke off negotiations with him.

Police Find Body

"Murder house" was vacated and an agent found the mounds in the cellar. Police dug and found Loyst's body.

On March 2, Kasap walked into police headquarters and said he understood police were looking for him. They questioned him daily—sometimes 32 hours at a stretch—without getting the slightest admission until yesterday.

They learned Kurzawa had been his constant companion. They traced Kurzawa to Imperial, Pa., where he was arrested. Ballistic tests had shown that the bullets which killed Bowman and Loyst had been fired from the same pistol. A pistol was found in Kurzawa's pocket and this was identified as the pistol.

Friday Kurzawa confessed. Yesterday, shown his signed statement, Kasap broke down.

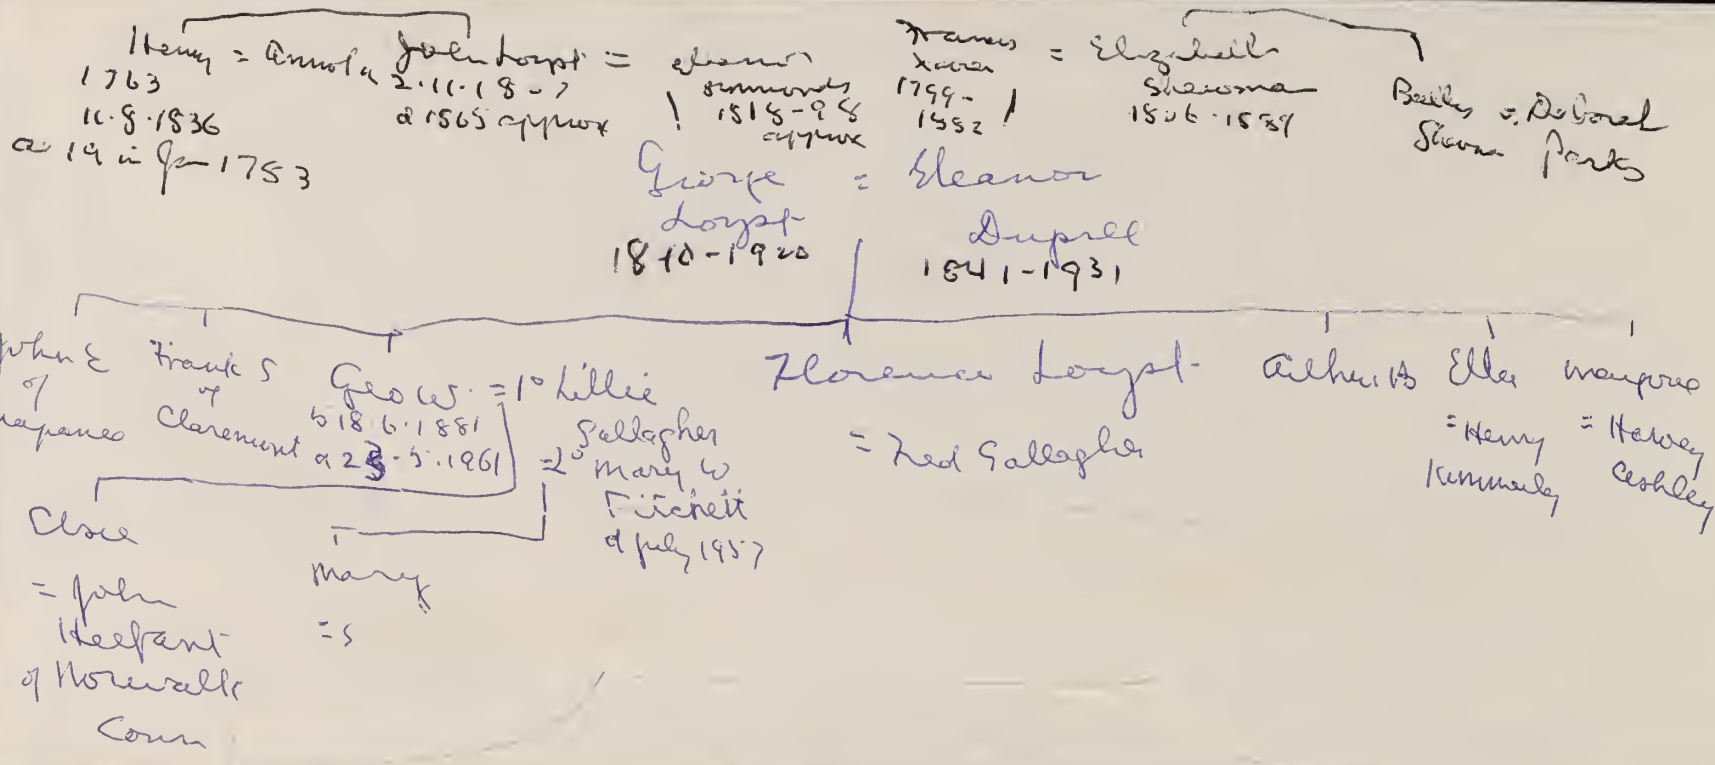

Michigan law does not provide for capital punishment. The maximum penalty for murder is life imprisonment.

Mr. H.C. Burleigh
Bath, Ont.

Dear Mr. Burleigh,

My name is Mrs Laverock Nee Loyst, I was in touch with you by mail in 1955, and I phoned you again a few months ago to see if you were still interested in helping me with my geneology.

I sent you a fee of $10.00 for 5 pages on the Loyst's and one page of Shoeman, which I was very grateful for, if there is any possibility of sending me more information on the Loyst's of any description I would appreciate it very much. And I would like to know of course what you would charge.

Apparently in my letter I did not connect my self up with the Loysts very well so I will try and show you my connection.

I am, Margaret Loyst the daughter of Cecil Carrington Loyst & Gladys Hannah Gale, Cecil is the 1st born and only son of John Edgerton Loyst Born 19 Feb 1877 & Bertha Maude Fields Born 15 June 1879, John was one of seven children born to George Loyst born sometime in 1840, that is a date I wish you could fill in for me, and Lenora Georgina Adeline Dupree Born 25 Oct 1841. George was born to John Loyst who was christened 2 Nov 1807 and Eleanor Simmonds Chr. sometime in 1818. John Loyst parents were Henry Loyst and Anna or Annoka Shewman.

Now what I want is this in Particular:- Birth Date and where born of George Loyst and E and the Marriage date of George Loyst and Lenora Georgina Adeline Dupree and where they were married and the reference, in other words where

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations where x, y, z are functions of t and τ and f, g, h are given functions of t, τ, x, y, z .

The second part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the case in which the functions f, g, h are linear in x, y, z and the functions α, β, γ are constant. In this case the system of equations can be written in the form where A, B, C are constant matrices and D, E, F are constant vectors. The system of equations (1) can be written in the form these people and their husbands and wives in fact anything you have on the Loysts at all

I would like to buy any information you can give me of my relative, and I very much appreciate all you have given me.

I notice that in your letter you will be giving your information to a responsible organization when you are through with them, and I know that there is an organization out here that would be very grateful for all the information you could possibly give them, as there are a lot of ~~sax~~ easterners here who would like to carry on the work that you have been doing.

Hoping that I will hear from you soon, and hoping that some of this information ~~will~~ will help you only I am sure I got most of it from you.

I have most of the sons and daughters and a lot of the dates which I can send to you. I am not quite sure whether or not I have missed a Father in there some where and neither am I sure that they are definitely Father's and Son's or whether I may have got any Uncle in there somewhere.

I obtained a lot of my information from the Cemetarys (I sure can't spell tonight) and South Fredericksburg registry office and from Rev. John Langhorn Baptismal records

I also have the U.S.L. Photo stat copy from Toronto of the last Grandfather and his

I am not sure which is the Grandfather but I think its Henry.

I hope that is something to go on and when and if you write me I will send

Dear Sir,

I wrote to you some 4 years ago concerning my family History, and at that time you gave me a little of my History of the 'Loyst' family and said you would require ten dollars ~~for~~ any information obtainable from your Loyst file, plus one dollar and a half for any additional search which may be required. At that time I didn't have the money, and unfortunately times haven't changed but I would like to send you $5.00, (five dollars) a month until Christmas and at that time I will be able to raise it at least another $5.00 (five dollars).

I would very much like to obtain my Loyst family tree and get as much sent to me as soon as you are able to obtain it. I would ask that you tell me how much you will require for your services, and if monthly instalments are acceptable they will come steadily every month.

I also have considerable information which I will give to you to help you as much as possible.

And from this family tree, I would require where absolutely possible the Birth Death & Marriage dates also where born where died where married. to whom and the Maiden name of Female. and Parents names in both cases.

I would really appreciate it if you could give me this help, I am so sorry I wasn't able to ask for it sooner. I will keep the August $5.00 until I hear from you as to whether you are willing to take on this project or not if so I will send it post haste.

Sincerely

Dear Mrs. Laverock:

Here at last are the notes on the Loyst Family. As you will note, I have carried down the family through the branch to which you seem to belong. It has taken several days to collect all the data I have been able to supply you. Naturally, there are isolated items which I have not supplied. If I had done so, I should have, of necessity, written a book on all the various branches.

As you can readily understand, there may be a few errors, not all of my making. All that I have supplied I can vouch for. Except for one branch of the family, that of William, son of Arthur B., and grandson of George and Lenora. There are several other Loyst families, and I suspect that someone has the old family bible loaded with early records. As you can see, many of your dates will be missing unless these bible records can be found. I find old clippings from newspapers to be of great value. Unfortunately, these clippings do not date much before 1900.

One thing missing in your letter is just how you connect with the family. If this had been stated, I might have been able to give you much more. If the Loyst family spread as much as my own, there must be members from Timbuctu to Tasmania.

William Loyst, aged about 30, stated that his grandmother, Lenora Dupre, was a first cousin of her husband, George Loyst. He further stated that George Loyst's mother, wife of John Loyst, was a Dupre (not Simmonds). There is not any doubt but that his aged father had told him this story. What is likely the truth of the matter is that his father knew that Lenora was kin of her husband (through the Showman connection) and in error assumed that it was through the Dupres. No doubt you have information to disprove this contention. This sketch will show what the above-mentioned family connection appeared to be to these people.

As I may have told you previously, I have been collecting and filing information on the old local families for the past twenty five years. Some files are very large, some very small. So, any information you may be able to supply will be greatly appreciated, not only by me but by future generations, as I intend to present these files to a responsible organization when I am through with them.

It is my hope that the attached notes prove satisfactory, and that you consider them worth the money.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr. Crouse,

I am a Latter Day Saint and the Genealogy Society in Salt Lake City has given me your name as some one who has helped them in the past.

I have a number of names given to me of Loyst (spelt Loyst Loist Loyst Loycost.) who were situated around Bath + Niagara Ontario area. But although I have the names
I don't have any information about them at all and I don't ever know 33 who connects with whom.

If you have information concerning these names or you could tell me where I could get the information I would be most grateful, and perhaps you would state your fee when you next write.

Very Sincerely

Margaret Laverack.

Mrs. Margaret Anderson,
121 Spadina Road,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Mrs. Anderson:

Your letter of 27 July, 1955, addressed to Mr. G. C. Grouse, Ottawa, Ont., was sent to me by him, as I am a genealogist residing in close proximity to the early home of the Loysts. I am sorry that you have had no reply until this late date. In response I shall outline below.

From your letter and enclosure it would seem as if you were asking for a complete genealogical tree of the Loyst family, which would be a tremendous job, involving much of research and a very large financial outlay. The only thing that I could do would be to supply you with copies of my notes on this family. They are only occasional glimpses of the family during the period of 170 years since their first arrival in Canada. These involve cemetery records, voters' lists, baptismal records and such like. Perhaps I should explain that I have been gathering and filing records of our local families over a period of twenty years, and, in many instances, I have a great deal of valuable information.

If, on the other hand, you wish to trace your own ancestry, it would be necessary to supply me with what you know of your parents, grand parents and great-grand parents. Dates should be given wherever possible.

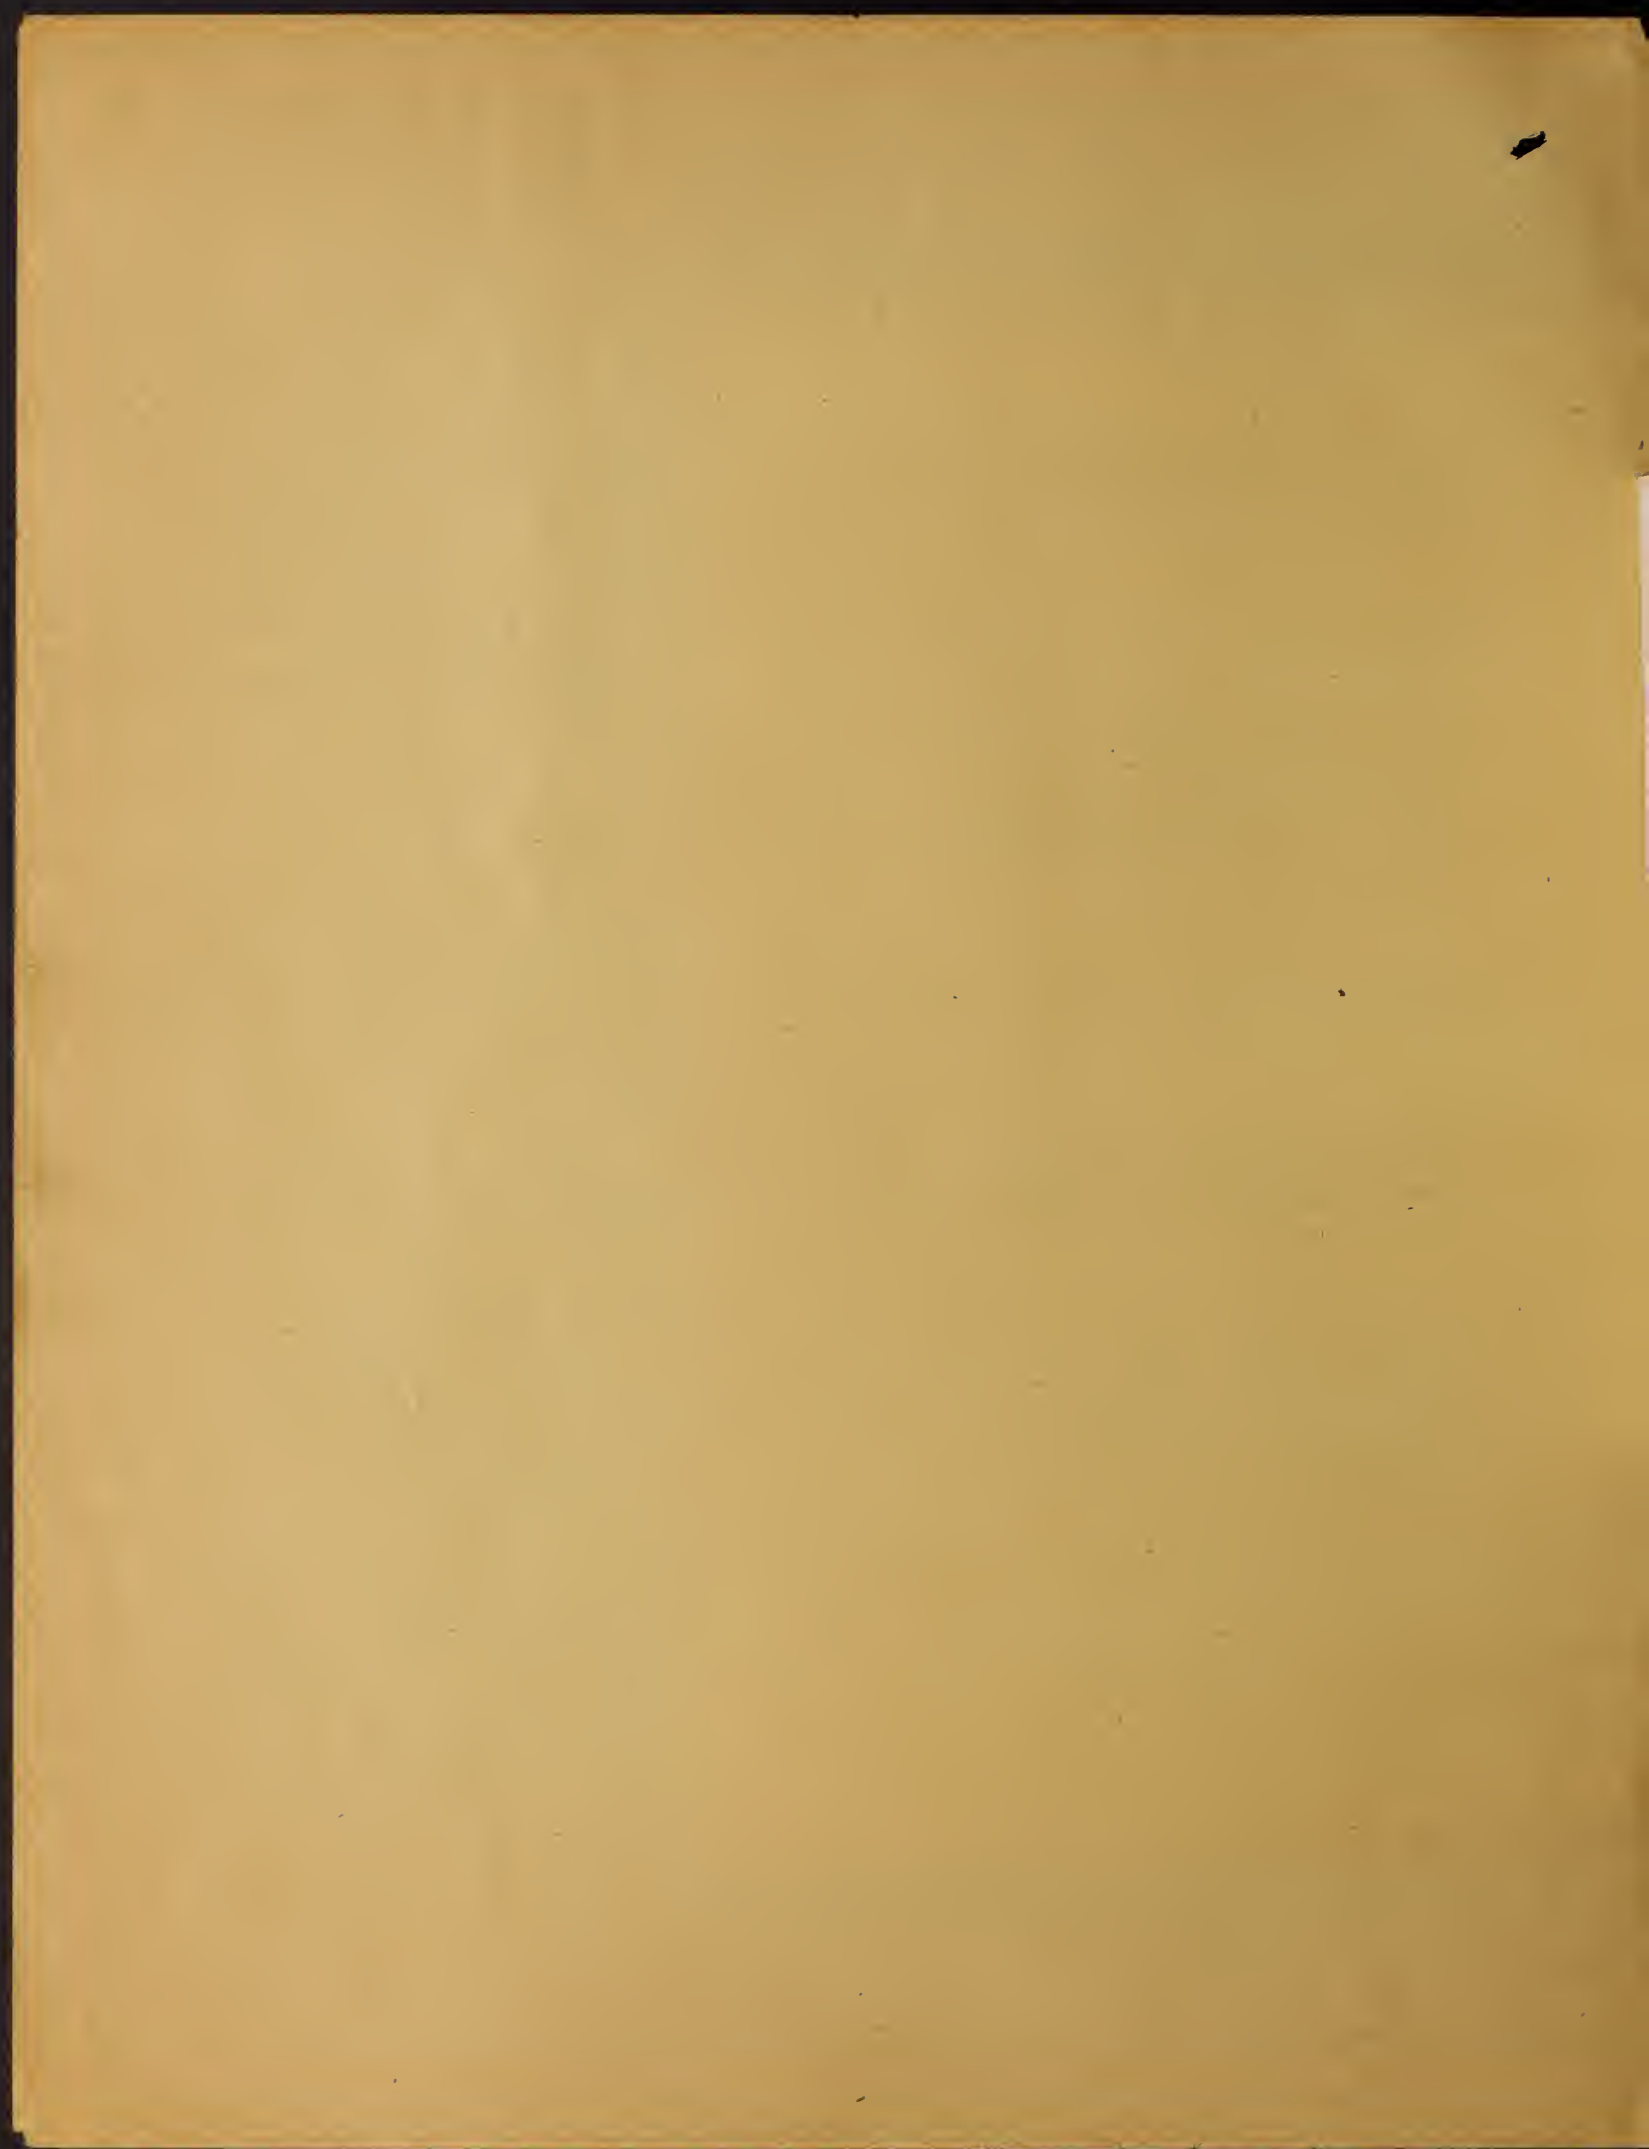

For your information, there are several Loyst families still residing along the south shore of Bay of Quinte, with a few scattered here and there within fifty miles. I have never talked with these people, except one man, regarding bible records, family trees, or such. This, however, could be done if your ancestral line called for it.

With regard to your request for a fee, I shall require ten dollars for any information obtainable from my Loyst file, plus one dollar and a half for any additional search which may be required. The County Registry Office is in Ottawa; the Town Office in Kingston has the early Anglican Church records, the church in which the early Loyst baptismal and marriage records are to be found.

If you are interested, I shall be glad to help you.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. Furlough

DORLAND

Dorland. — One more of the lifelong residents of the locality passed beyond, recently, in the person of Mrs. George Loyst, formerly Wilhelmina Fitchett. She had been in failing health for some time, but seriously ill only a couple of days. The funeral services were conducted at her home by Rev. A. Brandon, with burial in St. Alban's Cemetery. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Mary (Mrs. Everett Magee), three grandchildren and a stepdaughter, also two nephews and one niece. Her only brother, John Fitchett, predeceased her some years ago.

WEDDING BELLS

LOYST - HAWLEY

A pretty autumn wedding was witnessed by many in the Bath United Church, on Saturday, November 20, when Erma Mae Hawley, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hawley, Bath, was united in marriage to A. William Loyst, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Loyst, Sillsville. The Rev. James Robinson performed the ceremony amid fall shades of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Arthur Forbes presided at the organ and Mr. Arthur Wright sang 'I'll Walk Beside You,' during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white satin. A triple stand of pearls and earrings, a gift of the groom, added to an attractive sweetheart neckline. The sleeves formed points over the wrists. The waist-fitted bodice met a full-gathered skirt with insets of lace set off by two white gardenias. Her embroidered veil was held by a tiara of lace adorned with pearls and she carried a cascade of American Beauty roses.

The bride's dark-haired attendants were dressed alike in moire gowns and braided halo-type headdresses. Miss Norma Hawley, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honour. She wore a pale blue gown and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Elmer McFaul, of Bloomfield, as bridesmaid, wore yellow, and carried a cascade bouquet of Talisman roses and chrysanthemums. The little flower girl, Linda Welbanks, of Picton, niece of the groom, was prettily gowned in pink. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Peter MacKinnon, of O.A.C., Guelph was best man. Allan Hawley, of Chiropractic College, Toronto, also attended the groom. Master Douglas Hawley, was ring-bearer. Both are brothers of the bride. Mr. Elmer McFaul, of Bloomfield, and Mr. Herbert Weese, of Bath, were ushers.

Following the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. About forty-five guests were present. The bride's mother wore wine crepe with black accessories. The groom's mother wore black crepe with black accessories. Each chose a corsage of white carnations. Servers at the reception were Mrs. Herbert Weese, of Bath, Mrs. Arthur Wright, Violet, and Miss Gloria Carnegie, of Kingston.

For a wedding trip to the Maritimes, the bride donned a dress of American Beauty crepe, with grey shawl coat and accessories. Upon their return, the happy couple will reside in the Sillsville district.

Do the forums themselves take any positive action to find out about such courses?

Do the forums take action such as pooling cars, watching children, etc., so that interested members may go?

Many forums, such as Hawley, decry the lack of leadership in their own community. Here is a chance to develop some. Make sure that some of your forum members attend the Queen's short courses from December 26th to 29th.

These courses are about community program planning and will definitely help anyone attending them. May we stress the fact that every age group is welcome at these courses. Those in the age groups of eighteen to forty will perhaps derive the most good from these courses as these are definitely slanted at adult interest levels; those who have not yet lost their enthusiasm for undertaking projects in their own neighborhood.

For details, write Miss K. Healy, Department of Extension, Queen's University, Kingston. Please write before December 17, if possible.

Remember, if you can't go and stay go for a day, or two, and take a load of your friends.

MR. AND MRS. G. W. LOYST OBSERVE FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Loyst of Bath, were at home to their friends on December 4th, 1951 in honour of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. They were married at the bride's parents' home, Hawley, by Rev. H. Spence.

Mrs. Loyst was born in Fredericksburgh, the daughter of the late Mr. Frederick W. Creighton and Mary Hambly. She has two brothers and a sister, George Creighton of Napanee, Morley of Sillville, and Mrs. John Craven of Hawley.

Mr. Loyst moved to Ernesttown when a young lad and has lived in that district ever since. He was Reeve of Bath for four years and warden of St. John's Anglican Church, Bath, for thirty years. Mrs. Loyst is also an active worker in St. John's Church.

The bride, dressed in grey silk crepe and wearing the wreath of orange blossoms she wore fifty years ago, looked charming and happy. The home was gaily decorated with flowers and the tea table was gracefully adorned with a gold lace cloth, centered with a bronze bowl of golden mums. Mrs. Andrew Miller, sister of the groom, received the guests who were graciously welcomed by the bride and groom. Mrs. Fred P. MRS. EUNICE LOYST

Jan 6, 1939.

ARDEN— One of the oldest residents of Arden, Mrs. Eunice Loyst, passed away at her home on Monday in her 86th year. The late Mrs. Loyst was born in Sheffield County, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Boomhower. She married Simon Loyst 65 years ago.

She was a member of the United Church for many years and in her younger years was actively engaged in social and charitable work. Her death caused regret among her many friends.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, six daughters and three sons, Mrs. Alice Rikley, Ottawa; Mrs. Fred Simmons, Belleville; Mrs. Grove Bacon and Mrs. Janet Streeter, Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. Hattie Whalen and Mrs. Evan Jackson, Toronto; Robert, William and Stanley of Arden; also a number of grandchildren. Many beautiful floral tributes were received in respect to the aged lady.

Rev. Mr. Fletcher conducted the funeral service and the remains were laid to rest in the family plot at Hillside Cemetery.

times when the road is slippery." But reduction in minimum width of vehicle would not be practical, he believed.

Nor would it be, the commission said, "to transport vehicles from highways on Saturday evenings."

While the commission's agreement on the subject of rates among operators, the evidence definitely showed that the principal source of competition that has hampered motor transport bus operation is the competition between the operators themselves.

From long study of fares, it was found that fares "have been raised or less than, rail fares at the same terminals, in proportion to the rate of increase or the rate of decrease accomplished such."
